Platinum and Gold Member Offer with the Australian Institute of Company Directors

In 2010-2011, the Launceston Chamber of Commerce and the Australian Institute of Company Directors are offering Chamber Platinum and Gold members and their staff the opportunity to book courses with the Australian Institute of Company Directors at their member rate.

Below are the 2010-2011 course costs which give you an idea of the great savings on offer for courses run until the end of June 2011:

| Course | Member Rate | Non-Member Rate |
|--------------------------|-------------|-----------------|
| Company Directors Course | $5400 | $7560 |
| *FODS Half Day Course | $410 | $570 |
| *FODS Full Day Course | $745 | $1040 |
| In Focus Half Day Course | $410 | $570 |
| In Focus Full Day Course | $745 | $1040 |

* = Foundations of Directorship

As membership of the Australian Institute of Company Directors is an individual membership obviously if any staff members are already members, there is no benefit to that particular individual, however it's important to remember that the offer is open to all staff of Chamber Platinum and Gold members.

Chamber members eligible for this offer will be provided with a membership number for staff to quote when making a course booking with the Institute.

This special offer commences from the 1st July 2010. To take advantage of the offer please call or email Ellen at the Chamber on 6331 9364 or ellen.f@lcc.asn.au to receive your membership number.

To book a course (quoting your special LCC membership number), or to find out about the other benefits of membership of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, please contact the Institute's Tasmanian office on (03) 6224 0559. Full details of courses and membership benefits are also available on our website www.companydirectors.com.au.
